SIR KNIGHT:

For the third and last time, we request for the HONOR OF YOUR COMMANDERY and to encourage the officers, your attendance in Full Templar Uniform at the Inspection, April 13th 1915.

Your Grand Commander, Right Eminent Sir Walter F. Medding will favor you with his presence on this occasion. Why not show your loyalty by helping to make this the largest attendance in the history of Haverhill Commandery.

The enclosed Post Card needs your immediate attention. Write in carefully the answers required and mail before April 10th; Why! Recently your Commander attended an inspection where twenty or more Sir Knights were not provided with seats at the Banquet, for the only reason, that they had neglected to return the reservation card.

Which do you prefer?

All other information you will find on the accompanying notice.

George W. Palmer,
Commander
